Directions to the University of the South Campus

From Interstate 24, which runs between Nashville and Chattanooga, take Exit 134 (the sign reads Monteagle-Sewanee) onto Route 64. Following the signs for Sewanee, you will travel 3.8 miles on Route 64, passing St. Andrews-Sewanee School and entering the University of the South Domain, marked by large stone pillars on either side of the road. Shortly thereafter, take the University of the South exit, on your right. You will be on University Avenue, the main street of Sewanee.

Slow down; the speed limit is 25 and is pretty well enforced. University Avenue will take you past the Sewanee Inn on the right and Emerald Hodgson Hospital on the left. Continue down University Avenue, passing many of the dorms and classroom buildings. After you pass the bookstore and a little park on your left, turn left on Mitchell Avenue. Go down the hill and turn left again into a drive that leads to the parking lot behind Gailor.
